SPJ Leads Decal Challenge

SPJ is still the current leader of all the schools in Holy Cross Academy in the decal challenge; we've got a nice lead, but St. Paul's in North Canton is catching up, so let's finish strong! If you have not participated in the challenge, directions are attached to e-mail version of this newsletter.

SPJ Graduates Inducted into National Honor Society

We all know that SPJ's teachers and families are the best, but here's some more proof positive: seven SPJ grads currently attending Central Catholic were inducted into the National Honor Society this year! They join two members inducted last year (Anya Burke and Natalie Marshall); this year's inductees are Catherine Burke, Shea McVaney, Maya Bachtel, Savannah Gagnon, Andrea Ginella, Kyle Jones, and Drew Grissom.

Be sure to send in payment for or return your spring pictures.

Home & School Association Information

New Box Tops Competition: Start sending in those box tops in baggies with your child's name & homeroom – we've started a new homeroom competition!

Ink cartridges: We are also leading a drive for old ink cartridges to be sent in and recycled – SPJ earns funds through this!

Next meeting: Our next meeting will be on a Sunday in May 15.
